

Top Reasons for Buying CCS Network Inventory

- ❑ Discover all available machines on your network from a single click
- ❑ No need to install any client on remote computers (NT4/W2K/XP).
- ❑ Built-in Stub Analyzer program to audit computers from a Logon Scripts etc...
- ❑ Able to scan Win9x,Nt computers from a Stub Analyzer program.
- ❑ Built-in very good Export/Report features, many formats supported like Excel, Access, Pdf, Html, Xml, Jpg, Text etc...
- ❑ Custom Scan Criteria feature where you can extend your search from the normal search criteria built in Network Inventory.
- ❑ Built-in many Tools functions where you can scan your computers for Files, Registry, Security etc...
- ❑ Exclude Installed Application Titles you don't want included into the database.
- ❑ Built-in License Tracking feature where you can count your licenses, and see unused licenses.
- ❑ Good Support including Live Help, Online Help, Crow Canyon Help Site, Email Support.
- ❑ Built-in Compare License feature to compare against another audit database to see the difference.
- ❑ Built-in Auto-Fetch schedule where you can automatically fetch new machines into the database when they comes alive.
- ❑ Easy step to force a update on all or selected computers from the Update process.
- ❑ Easily discover newly added computers on the network from the Fetch New feature.
- ❑ Able to scan computers from a specific Domain name or from a range of IP Addresses.
- ❑ Built-in Charting features of your audit data.
- ❑ Built-in Auto Update feature where you can automatically update audit data on selected computers.
- ❑ Able to scan computers from another network with different username/password to get the required privilege.
- ❑ Built-in local database for the audit data, no need to install SQL or other databases